

The Sterling Municipal Alliance presents a

FREE Parent Program:

What to Look for in a Teenage Bedroom:

An interactive presentation of where drug paraphernalia may be right in plain view!

&

Presented by: Winslow Police Lts. Dubler and Pearson

What: Free Parent/Adult program about items of drug activity and use. Parents who attend the session may also drop off any school-aged child to the free movie: Despicable Me 3.

The movie will be supervised and district staff and NJHS.

Thursday, March 21, 2019 @ 7pm-8:30pm

(Cafeteria doors open for the movie at 6:45pm.)

Where: Samuel S. Yellin School, Stratford NJ 08084

WHY? BECAUSE WE NEED TO WORK TOGETHER TO KEEP families healthy, drug free and communities connected. This 7pm program is for Adults only. But parents from the are welcome to bring their school-aged child(ren) to the movie at 6:45pm. Nut free snacks: including popcorn and candy are available for free (and extra snacks for a $1.00 donation).

DETAILS: Parents bringing children to the movie should RSVP the number of school-aged children to: Mrs. Barbara Carlson at carlsonb@stratford.k12.nj.us. Please RSVP by 12:00 pm on 3/21/19. Adults (18 and up) just attending the program, do not need to RSVP. The "What to look for..." program is in the Gym and the movie, Despicable Me 3, is in the Cafe.