

Sterling National Honors Society

Application

Instructions

Each candidate must fill out the form completely (5 parts) for consideration into the National Honor Society. Missing or incomplete information could lead to a student not being considered regardless of academic achievement.

If you wish to submit the form electronically, download the document onto your computer or tablet and save it with a different name. Type in the information in the boxes provided or fill out the blank form and scan it. At this point, you can print your document and attach the appropriate documents to be submitted or scan all documents and submit them electronically to jflocco@sterling.k12.nj.us

If you cannot download the Word document, choose the .pdf document print it and fill out the form and return it for consideration. Make sure to type your personal statement on a separate piece of paper and attach it to your application.

All forms must be submitted to Mr. John Flocco, NHS moderator, by the deadline. Please feel free to contact Mr. Flocco previous to the deadline with questions about the form.

Please be aware of the deadline for submission as it changes from year to year.
